

INDEX.

A.

Ability and Inability, in Clerical economics, 519.

Anderson's Hawaiian Islands, articles reviewing, 244; social and religious cosmogonies, 245; origin of Dr. Anderson's book, 247; progress of the Hawaiian evangelization, 248; early state of those islands, 250; present state of them, 252; a strictly religious revolution, 253; quality of their religion, 254; favorable aspect, 254-6; unfavorable aspects, 257; resemblance to Corinthian churches, 258; decline of native population, 260; hope of an increase, 262; influx of foreign residents disastrous, 262; the "Reformed Catholic Mission," 265; Roman Catholic Missions, 267; effect of Christianity in elevating mankind, 268.

Annual of Scientific Discovery for 1855, noticed, 419.

Apologia Pro Sua Vita, Dr. Newman's, 31.

Are we a Christian Nation, 212.

Arnold's Matthew, Essays in Criticism, noticed, 511.

Arnold's Matthew, Poems noticed, 510.

B.

Barrows, Rev. William, article by, 75.

Barrows, Willard, articles by, 118, 269, 442.

Barstow, Dr. Z. S., article by, 501.

Bartlett's Familiar Quotations, noticed, 315.

Bayard Taylor, Our New Novelist, article on, 162; Hannah Thurston, 162; John Godfrey's Fortunes, 163; review of this last novel, 163-7; defective idea of American life, 166; lacks a Christian sense, 167.

Beecher, Lyman, article reviewing his Autobiography, Correspondence, etc., 531; parentage and birth, 532; early life, 533; college life, 533; conversion, 536; theological course, 537; goes to East Hampton, 538; thence to Litchfield, 540; episode of Mary Hubbard, 540; death of first wife, 541; Dr. Beecher as a controversialist, 542; the Unitarian contest, 542; champion of human ability, 543; Catherine Beecher's religious troubles, 544; Man's guilt and God's mercy, 545; goes to Boston and work there, 546; Unitarianism and paganism, 548; Dr. Beecher aimed to unsettle the old Calvinistic foundations, 549; Taylor and Tyler, 550; radical differences of the two systems, 550; Dr. Beecher goes to Cincinnati, 551; Presbyterian troubles, 552; conclusion, 553-4.

Blake, Rev. H. B., article by, 168.

Boehm's Reminiscences, noticed, 620.

Bright's John, Speeches on the American Question, noticed, 513.

Bulk versus Worth, 208.

Burton, Rev. H. N., article by, 371.

C.

Chamberlain's Autobiography of a New England Farm House, noticed, 205.

Christian Armor, The, noticed, 316.

Christian Unity Society, The, article on, 389; objects and ground of the Society, 389-90; denominational divisions not wholly evil, 391; dead uniformity worse, 393; no safe return from spiritualism to ritualism, 394; Episcopal proselytism, 396; its aesthetics and lax doctrine, 396; its regeneration, 397; the Episcopal church Romish, 398-400; its claim of organic unity, 400; considered and refuted, 401-5.

Church, a Congregational, what, 326.

Church Review, The, on Missions, 320.

Church, The True, 620.

Cobbe's Broken Lights, noticed, 94.

Companion Poets for the People, noticed 421.

Congregational Polity, Usages and Law, article on, 321; statement of the subject, 321; the law of usage, 322; recognized by the civil law, 323; unwritten law of the churches, 324; what is a church, 325; a Congregational church, 326; dissolving a church, 328; fellowship of the churches, 328; pulpit exchanges, 329; transfer of church-members, 329; clerical associations, 330; church conferences, 331; general synods or conferences, 332; local councils, 333; admission to and exclusion from fellowship, 335; parish and church, 337; poll parishes how incorporated, 339; parish and church not essential to each other, 341; but when united not separable, 341; property how held, 343; election of pastors, 344; ministers and pastors, 346; views of the Pilgrims, 246; the English law, 348; changes, 349; salary of minister, 349; ordination, early and present views concerning, 350-1; stated supplies, 353; settlement of a minister, 353-4; forfeiture of pastoral office, three grounds of, 355; how to be determined, 355-7;

- ecclesiastical councils, 357; kinds of, and objects of, 357-60; calling a council, 361; proceedings of councils, 363; membership determined by letters missive, 363; hearing parties, and result, 365-6; force of the decision, not simply advisory, 368; three classes of reflecting force, 368-70.
- Congregationalism. The Duty of to Itself*, article on, 521; its duty in relation to form, 522; providential enforcement of biblical views authoritative, 523; polity the guard of doctrine, 524; its duty in relation to the spiritual life, 525; must contend for the faith, 527; must infuse its government with spiritual life and power, 528; the churches should be in direct contact with our benevolent and missionary enterprises, 529-31.
- Councils, nature, proceedings, force of results of, 357-70.
- Country, the state of, 106.
- Currier, Rev. A. H.*, article by, 534.
- D.
- Davis, Hon. Woodbury*, article by, 321.
- Denton's Exposition of the Lord's Prayer*, noticed, 420.
- Derby's Earl, Translation of Homer*, noticed, 420.
- Dix's Lectures on Pantheism*, noticed, 89.
- Doctrinal defection, 423.
- Domestic Life, anti-biblical views of, 101.
- Droper's Future Policy of America*, noticed, 606.
- E.
- Ellicott's Commentary on the Pastoral Epistles*, noticed, 314.
- Episcopacy in New England, 396-406, 620.
- Episcopacy in the Sandwich Islands, 265.
- Essays on Social Subjects*, noticed, 97.
- F.
- Fellowship of Churches, 328-35.
- Forsyth's Life of M. T. Cicero*, noticed, 414.
- Foster on The Improvement of Time*, article reviewing, 51; importance of time, 52; capacity of time, 53; Sir William Jones' acquisitions, 54; swiftness of time, 55; a future life, 56; indolence reproved, 58; use of the fragments of time, 59; solitary life not desirable, 60.
- From Dawn to Dark in Italy*, noticed, 317.
- Froude's History of England*, noticed, 412.
- Frothingham's Philosophy as Absolute Science*, noticed, 93.
- G.
- Gail Hamilton's A New Atmosphere*, noticed, 99.
- Gardiner's Autumn Leaves*, noticed, 419.
- Glyndon's Idyls of Battles and Poems of the R-bellion*, noticed, 421.
- God, The Suffering Of*, article on, 1; the Beecher theory of, 1-2; other theories, 2-3; what is meant by the suffering of God, 3; does it make God unhappy, 5; Mr. Geo. Griffin's view, 5; is such suffering voluntary, 6; has God passions, 7; Drs. Emmons, Tyler, Woodbridge quoted, 7; arguments affirming God's suffering reviewed, 9; the scriptural statement, 9; analogy of human mind, 10; correspondence of human and Divine minds, 11; is suffering essential to God's glory, 12; supposed moral effects of this doctrine, 13; alleged evil tendencies of the doctrine of Divine impassibility, 14; arguments against the suffering of God, 15; nature of the Divine attributes, 15; what is Divine repentance, 16; God's perfect happiness denies His passibility, 17; this brings down our conception of God, 18; Dr. E. Beecher's object in asserting that God suffers, 19; whence the Dr.'s knowledge, 20; mostly intuitional, 22; Dr. Beecher's high toned assertions, 23; his use of Scripture, 24; charge of Gnosticism, 25; Dr. Beecher asserts the attainability of perfect knowledge on the moral system of the universe, 26; tells us how God must govern, 27; and how created souls must be tried, 28; and that here is the true doctrine of the origin of evil, 29; puts God on the defensive, 30.
- Gordon, Rev. A. J.*, article by, 389.
- Grout's Isizula*, noticed, 418.
- Grout, Rev. Louis*, article by, 572.
- Grout's Zulu-Land*, noticed, 418.
- H.
- Hague's Christianity and Statesmanship*, noticed, 417.
- Hall's Arctic Researches and Life Among the Esquimaux*, noticed, 199.
- Hawaiian Islands, The, 244.
- Hedge's Reason in Religion*, noticed, 416.
- Hickok's Empirical Psychology, and Moral Science*, noticed, 519.
- Hickok's Rational Psychology*, article reviewing, 425; purpose of author, 425; estimate of his work, 426; peculiarity of this treatise, 427; ignores the experimental method, 427; a priori assumptions, 429; theory of perception unsound, 430; Sir Thomas Brown's analysis, 431; Idealism and materialism, 432; Hickok's denial of realism, 433; and of ultimate intuitions, 434; Sir W. Hamilton's philosophy of the conditioned, 435; Hickok's doctrine of reason, 436; exaggerates its powers and functions, 437; fallacies in his reasoning, 438; conclusions unsatisfactory, 440.
- Hobby men and horses, 211.
- Holton, Rev. I. F.*, article by, 432.
- Holy Ghost, Sin against, 371.

Hours at Home, noticed, 519.

Hugh Miller's Essays, Historical, Political, Social, Literary and Scientific, noticed, 417.

I.

Idaho and Montana; Wanderings There; Returning, articles on, 118, 269; original discovery of the gold field, 119; Indian tribes, 120; and late massacres, 121; official delinquencies, 122; life on the plains, 124; morals of the immigrants, 129; obtaining gold, 129; the grisly bear, 269; geology and botany, 272; mountain sheep, 273; volcanic remains, 274-7; lawlessness and public insecurity, 278; Salt Lake and Mormonism, 280-3.

International and Ancient Law, article reviewing Woolsey's and Maine's works upon, 142; of general as well as professional interest, 143; Woolsey's volume timely, 145; plan of, 145-6; view of on retaliation, 146; treatment of prisoners in war, 147; property of non-combatant enemies, 148; distinction between civil war and rebellion, 149; on neutrality, 150; must be amicable, 150; on blockade and right of search, 152; Maine's Ancient Law, 152; first source of law, 154; legal fiction, equity, legislation, 155-7; law of testamentary succession, 157; law of property, 159; law of contract, 159; law of crime, 161.

Inquisition, The Modern, 188.

J.

Jameson's Sacred and Legendary Art; and Legends of the Monastic Orders, noticed, 98.

Jesuitism, its spirit, 186.

Johnson's, Andrew, Speeches, noticed, 618.

K.

Kebble's Christian Year, noticed, 206.

L.

Lange's Commentary on St. Matthew's Gosp l, noticed, 102.

Law, early sources and growth of, 154.

Life in Heaven, noticed, 419.

Literary Notices, 89, 195, 310, 408, 508, 606.

Living Dogs and Dead Lions, article on, 75; transition from animals to men, 76; and from dead principles and usages to living ones, 76; should keep up with our age, 77; yet progress is not always upward, 78; nor are we to condemn the past altogether, 78; nor endorse all the present, 80; secret of not growing old, 82; our great men of the past, 83; Webster's speech on Foot's Resolution, 84; all the lions not yet dead, 86.

M.

Man and Nature, article reviewing Marsh's work on, 482; man's desolating power, 482; changes resulting from human industry, especially on forests, 484; forest-soil damp, 485; forests moderate temperature, 486; removal of forests influences springs, 487; effect on amount of rain, 487; other ill effects, 489; causes of forest denudation, 491; remedies, the tallas and coppice, 492; Government should interpose protection, 495; Artesian wells, 498; future geographic changes, 499.

Mann's Horace, Life, noticed, 615.

Man Without a Country, The, noticed, 518.

Marvin, Rev. E. P., articles by, 42, 521.

McCollom Rev. J. T., article by, 565.

McClaine's Work of Preaching Christ, noticed, 421.

Men Above Angels in the Kingdom of God, article on, 61; interpretations of Hebrews II: 5, et seq; and of Ps. VIII, 62; man's supremacy in the Gospel kingdom, 63-7; the argument of the apostle, 68; other Scriptural proofs, 68; man's capacity for unlimited improvement, 69; angels not thus susceptible, 70; intermediate state between death and resurrection, 71; relation of propagation to growth and progress, 73; why no redemption for fallen angels, 74.

Mendelssohn's Letters and Life, article reviewing, 378; descent and youthful promise, 379; thorough self-discipline, 380-2; ideas of his art, 383; personal characteristics, 384-6; death and funeral honors, 388.

Merivale's Conversion of the Roman Empire, noticed, 611.

Merivale's History of the Romans under the Empire, noticed, 197.

Mills, J. S., Critique of Sir William Hamilton, noticed, 618.

Milman's History of the Jews, noticed, 205.

Milton's Satan, The Ethical Character of, article on, 238; historical and poetical treatment of subjects, 238; the Satan of Paradise Lost, 239; compared with the scriptural, 240; greatness in ruins, 241; intellectuality of Milton's Satan, 242; moral effect of such a representation not good, 243.

Ministers and pastors, Congregational, 346-57.

Monasticism its spirit, 185.

Muller's Lectures on the Science of Language, second series, noticed, 310.

N.

National Council of Congregational Churches, The, article on, 285; preliminary conferences, 285; departure from primitive faith and polity, 286; present movement timely, 287; its design, 287;

relation of Congregationalism to American society and the world's illumination, 288-90; relation to other denominations, 291; should cover the whole land, 292; difficulties opposed to this, 292; is Congregationalism competent to its work, 293; demoralization of its churches, 294; cases of Councils cited, 294-5; lack of clerical protection, 296; what should the National Council do, 296-7....notice of it, 422.

National Sorrow, Our Great, 318.

Newman's Planting and Framing of the Christian Church by the Apostles, noticed, 195.

Neutrality in War, 150.

Newman's, Dr., Apology for His Own Life, article reviewing, 31; history of the Apologia, 31; Dr. Newman's early life, 33; education and associates, 34; Tracts for the Times, their purpose, 35; vitiating element, 36; Dr. Newman's vacillation, 37; tendency to Popery, 38; his appeals to the Church-of-England Fathers, 39; and Liturgy, 40; position of that church, 41.

O.

Ourselves, 105.

P.

Parishes, law of, 337-43.

Parkman's French and English in North America, noticed, 613.

Pastoral relation, three grounds of its forfeiture, 355-7.

Peabody, Dr. A. P., article by, 244.

Peck's Forty Years of Pioneer Life, noticed, 96.

Peck's Trials and Triumphs of our Country, noticed, 417.

Pike, Rev. John, article by, 233.

Pint Cups, 108.

Plumer's Law of God, noticed, 203.

Poets of Portsmouth, The, noticed, 202.

Popery as a Present Fact, article reviewing "Under the Ban," 178; the Roman question is an American question, 179; efforts of the Roman church to Romanize our country, 180; the book under review is an anti popish tale by a papist, 180; its character and drift, 181; tries to prove that the abuses of popery do not spring from its essential nature, 182; but from the monastic orders, 182; reasons against the Pope's temporal power, 182; plan of the story, 183; picture of papal intolerance, 185; spirit of monasticism, 185; the Jesuits, 186-8; the Inquisition now in operation, 188; the result of popery itself, not of monkery, 189; Mary's Immaculate Conception a Jesuit triumph, 190; popery can not be altered, 191.

Public Speaking, 424.

Punchard's History of Congregationalism, noticed, 413.

Q.

Quiet under Republicanism, 107.

Quotation Marks, responsibility of, 207.

R.

Rankin, Rev. J. E., article by, 238.

Regeneration not Development, article on, 109; meaning of regeneration, 109; how distrusted and evaded, 110; nature the only other resource, 111; Unitarianism as defined by itself, 112; the main question at issue a biblical one, 113; testimony of the Bible, 113-4; practical results of the opposite systems, 115; Dr. Chalmers' testimony, 116; Dr. Thomas Scott's, 116; wants of the human soul, 117.

Religion and Chemistry, article reviewing Prof. Cooke's Lectures, 461; object of the lectures, 462; province of Natural Theology, 463; testimonies of the atmosphere, 466; testimonies of oxygen, 471; testimonies of water, 475; argument against Pantheism, 479; and against materialism, 480; place of natural science in the Christian controversy, 481.

Revivalists: The Character and Fruits of their Labors, article on, 168; place for evangelists, 168; revivalists not provided for in the Divine economy, 168; effect on themselves, 169; temptation to covetousness, 170; temptation to self-intrusion upon the churches, 170; results of their labors—church divisions, 171; instability of pastors, 171; undervaluing of ordinary means of grace, 171; false views the agency in regeneration, 172; false doctrines and human devices, 172; letter quoted, 173; weakening the sense of personal responsibility, 174; success of revivalists often only apparent, 174; "burnt districts," 176; truths concerning salvation of men, 177.

Richardson's Secret Service, Field, Dungeon and Escape, noticed, 514.

Robinson's Physical Geography of the Holy Land, noticed, 314.

Round Table, Our, and The Iowa News Letter, 207.

Round Table, The, 105, 207, 318, 422, 519, 620.

Russell, Dr. E., article by, 425.

S.

Sabin, Dr. L., article by, 109.

Sacred Things in Boston, increase of, 210.

Savage, Rev. Wm. T., article by, 285.

Schaff's Person of Christ, noticed, 515.

Self Forgetfulness, The Power of, article on, 554; watching our emotions lessens our admiration, 555; travellers at Athens, 555; why grief over bereavement is not deeper, 556; disappointment in hearing distinguished orators, 557; and singers, 558; attempts to please unsuc-

- cessful, 558; how to enjoy reading, 559; and to preach effectively, 559; self-forgetfulness alike necessary to good literary composition, 560; Shakespeare and Thomas Campbell, 561; Bryant quoted, 562; too much self-watchfulness unfavorable to religious enjoyment, 562; general benefit of self-forgetfulness, 563.
- Seawall, Prof. J. B.*, article by, 461.
- Shakespeare, White's Life and Genius of*, noticed, 616.
- Short Sermons, 87, 192, 305, 406, 505, 604.
- Sin Against the Holy Ghost, The*, article reviewing Rev. H. W. Beecher's sermon on, 371; biblical statement of this sin, 371—3; Mr. Beecher's statement, 373; it contradicts the biblical, 374; ignores essential distinctions recognized in the Bible, 375; false exegesis to support his speculations, 377.
- Shedd's History of Christian Doctrine*, article reviewing, 565; a fascinating work, 566; the historical method of teaching theology is the best, 566; candor and fairness of this author, 568; unfounded complaint against him, 569; value of the old doctrinal symbols, 570; the author's method, 571.
- Sliding Scale of Faith*, article on, 213; our church confessions, 213; conflict concerning them, 214; Dr. Ware and Mr. Hollis professorship, 214; meaning of our formulas plain, 215; phraseology of them admirable, 216; why objected to, 217; Congregational Quarterly, strictures on, 218; other lax views, 220; how they justify themselves, 221; the "philosophical" pretence, 221; efforts for a "middle point," 222; progress in error, 223; the "liberal" pretence, 225; Dr. Kirkland quoted, 225; free inquiry not hampered by creeds, 226; Dr. Belows' testimony, 227; the pretence that our faith has little to do with our practice, 228; the "economical" pretence, 230; broadening Congregationalism, 232; this discussion very practical, 233; the Andover Seminary, 233—5; the National Council should reaffirm the Puritan standards, 236.
- Smith's Dictionary of the Bible*, noticed, 91.
- Smith, Rev. J. T.*, article by, 61.
- Snow, D. E.*, article by, 51.
- Soldiers' Monuments and Receptions*, 622.
- Spiritual Man, The Scriptural Doctrine of the*, article on, 42; Gospel Christianity correlates with a true mental philosophy, 42; Romans vii. 14—23 contains a profound analysis of man's nature and state as a sinner, 42; deliverance from the sinner's own impotency, here set forth, 43; meaning of "law" and "spiritual," 44; of "carnal" and "spiritual," 46; the internal warfare, 47; Bloomfield and Stuart, in loco, 47; meaning of Ulaw, 49.
- Sprague's Annals of the Unitarian Pulpit*, noticed, 408.
- Spurgeon's Sermons*, eighth series, noticed, 415.
- State Rights*, Taylor Lewis, noticed, 203.
- Stevens' History of the Methodist Church in the United States*, noticed, 312.
- Story of the Great March, Major Nicholson's*, noticed, 513.
- T.
- Taylor's, Jeremy, Holy Living and Dying*, noticed, 201.
- Texts examined; Rom: vii. 14—23; 42. Heb: ii. 5, seq; 61. Isa: lv. 2; 87. John i. 46; 88. Gen: xxviii. 17; 192. Ps: xiv. 2, 3; 194. John xix. 30; 305. Isa: xxx. 10. 11; 306. Mark iii. 28—30; 371. Rom: x. 4; 406. Luke xix. 5, 6; 407. Ps: xvi. 10; 501—5. Jeremiah ii. 3; 505. Ps: xlii. 11; 506.
- Theology and Morality*, article on, 133; can these be divorced, 133; the religious sentiment instinctive, 133; true religion develops itself in practical goodness, 134; tendency to formalism, 135; theology vindicated, 135; how doctrines were systematized, 136; not a modern production, 136; the substratum of religion, 136; Christians too ignorant of them, 137; but they are means to godly living, 137; personal purity and integrity the strongest influence on men, 138; Christian morality higher than natural, 139; power of the milder and more delicate virtues, 140; what is Christian politeness, 141.
- Thoreau's Cape Cod*, noticed, 517.
- Thoreau's Letters to Various Persons*, noticed, 518.
- Thou Wilt not Leave My Soul in Hell*, article on, 501; Christ's descending into hell not in the creed of the first four Christian centuries, 502; its origin, 502; changes in its interpretation, 502; exposician of text, 503.
- Three Thousand Miles up the Missouri*, article on, 442; incidents and scenery, 447; Indian legends, 448; Indian characteristics and condition, 455—61.
- Tucle, Geo. M.*, article by, 142.
- Tucker, Rev. J. T.*, articles by, 31, 178, 378.
- Tyler, Rev. C. M.*, article by, 133.
- U.
- Under the Ban, 178.
- Unitarianism, Early New England, 408.
- V.
- Vamberry's Travels in Central Asia*, noticed, 516.
- Vermilye, Dr. R. G.*, article by, 1.
- Via Media, 106.

W.

War, Progress of our, 209.

Webster's Dictionary of the English Language, noticed, 96.

Wesley, Charles, and Methodist Hymns, article on, 296; Bibliotheca Sacra's laudations of Wesley, and disparagement of other hymn-writers, 296; Wesley compared with Watts, 293—302; with Doddridge, Mrs. Steele, Montgomery, Heber, 303—5.

Wesleys, The Mother of the, article reviewing Kirk's life of, 586; her ancestry, 587; and family, 589; their privations, 590; her letter to her son, John Wesley concerning their domestic training, 591—5; devotional character, 597; religious thoughts, 599—600; counsels to her children, 600; labors in her husband's parish, 601; Mr. Kirk's biography of her, 602.

Williams' Year in China, noticed, 421.

Z.

Zulu-Kaffra, Reminiscences of Life Among, article on, 572; approaching the country, 573; its flora, 574—6; its geology, 577—9; climate, 579; civil history, 581; the natives, 583: customs and superstitions, 584; missions among, 585.

